Montford — Asheville's most historic neighborhood — will showcase 11 homes at the Annual 22nd Holiday Tour of Homes on Saturday, December 9 from 1 until 5 p.m. This is your chance to explore the lovingly restored or carefully constructed eclectic architecture of historic and carefully crafted new homes. The Montford Historic District is Asheville's oldest and largest with over 600 buildings reflecting a variety of late 19th and early 20th century styles, and includes a variety of architectural influences reflecting the cosmopolitan character of Asheville during the turn of the 20th century.

New this year, the "Montford Holiday Tour of Homes" Keepsake Booklet which will serve as your map and ticket, providing directions to the self-guided tour of homes, photographs and information about the individual properties, historic information about the neighborhood, and colorful ads of our tour sponsors and advertisers.

Profits from the Tour of Homes support improvements and activities in Montford such as:

- Youth programs at the Montford Recreation Center
- New bus shelters on Montford Ave., including historic panels
- Support for the spring Montford Music and Arts Festival
- Security for children to enjoy Halloween in Montford

- Beautification projects in the Montford neighborhood
